SATURDAY, JUNE 29, 1901.

The following notice of our county man appears in a late issue of the Richmond News: "State Senator Dr. George W. LeCato, of Accomac, has a great many friends who strongly favor his candidacy for Lieutenant Governor. He is recognized as the parent of the Board of Fisheries, and his efforts in the Legislature for prison reforms and the betterment of the State penitentiary, placed him at the head of the present penitentiary commission. Dr. LeCato is making a strong contest and will be solidly backed by the Tidewater countles, and from other parts of the State in which the sentiment prevails that the Eastern Shore, for so many years neglected should be represented on the ticket. Dr. LeCato's experience in the Senate, his ripe judgment and high character, all combine to make him a strong can-

That his merits and services to the State will be recognized by the Convention when it meets, in a way to give him the nomination for the second place on the Gubernatorial ticket, ought to be beyond all question. The section in which he lives is entitled to that recognition and no one doubts that Dr. LeCato would fill the office of Lieutenant-Governor with credit to himself and the State.

The Eastern Shore Produce Exchange continues to live and flourish, despite the short lease of life predieted for it by some outside of the organization, and that it will continue to live goes without saying unless our people are too blind to see the benefits they have already derived from it or are such dreamers as to hope for something better outside of it. No one questions the fact, that through its operations last year thousands of dollars were left in the pockets of our people which they would not have received but for it and it is gratifying to us to be able to commend the organization for the good work it has already done this season, in finding markets for their produce and keeping up the price of it. That the Exchange will continue to live and grow, we do not doubt, and we have too much respect for the intelligence of our people to be lieve, that many of them will long fail to recognize its usefulness and refuse to give it the support so essential to its greater success and their best interests.

In the death of Capt. B. S. Rich, which occurred on the 21st inst. Accomac loses one of her worthiest and best citizens. He was an unassuming and high-toned gentleman, who discharged well every duty im private life and by his pure and upright life commanded the respect and esteem of all who knew him. As Superintendent of the Life Saving Service for twenty five years or more he was recognized by the chief of the he was recognized by the chief of the service as one of the best. As a citi-normal functions, renew his vitable, zen he was in all respects worthy and his death is deeply regretted by all of our people

City Attorney Henry R. Pollard, of Richmond, will, in all likelihood, be permanent chairman of the Norfolk convention and it is thought that the chairmanship of Committee on Resolutions will go either to Senator Carter Glass, of Lynchburg, or Congressman W. A. Jones, of Warsaw. It china and a surry in good condition. is likely that Colonel George C. Charlotte C. Taylor. is likely that Colonel George C. Cabell, of Danville, will present Mr. Montague's claims to the convention, and several prominent gentlemen from different sections of the State will make seconding speeches. Those suggested include Messrs. Charles V. Meredith, of Richmond, N. B. Wescott, of Accomac, and Carter Glass, of Lynchburg.—Free Lance.

Richmond, Va., June 25.—There was another rush of matter introduced in the Constitutional Convention to-day. The recess from Saturday until to-day has enabled members to prepare resolutions and other papers which found their way into the body. bers to prepare resolutions and other papers which found their way into the body. A number of resolutions were presented from colored people in various parts of the State protesting against the disfranchisement of their race, or in any way curtailing the present school privileges.

Probably the most notable proposition made to-day was that of Mr. Turnbull, of Brunswick, for a division of the school fund. The resolution directs the Committee on Education to report a clause of the Constitution for separate schools for the races, and that appropriation shall be applied that appropriation shall be applied to each in proportion to the amount of taxes paid. The preamble of the resolution sets forth that the education of the negro has proved a fail-ure. The time has arrived, it declares when as a matter of self-preservation the whites should devote to the chil dren of their race the money paid by There were a dozen propositions introduced to-day affecting corpora-tions. One, of which Mr. Pollard was tions.
